Campus Living Villages attends Australian Pensions and Investors Summit 2009

Campus Living Villages (CLV) has announced its attendance at this year's Australian Pensions and Investments Summit, an exclusive event for senior level pensions and investment focused executives.

Tom Gregg, Managing Director of CLV NZ, will be representing Campus Living Villages at the event.

"The Summit will be an invaluable opportunity to develop business relationships with prominent pension funds and showcase our offer and unique fund model to prospective investors," says Gregg.

The Campus Living Villages Fund was established in January 2007 as a wholesale student accommodation fund. Investors include Transfield Holdings entities and major Australian superannuation funds. The Fund has an exclusive mandate to finance, operate and develop student accommodation.
