Resignation of CEO and appointment of acting CEO

The Board of Campus Living Funds Management (CLFM) advises that the Chief Executive of CLFM and Campus Living Villages (CLV), Iain Rothwell, has resigned.

“Iain has made a significant contribution to CLFM and Campus Living Villages during his time with the business. He has helped ensure that CLV, an international leader in the provision of student accommodation, has continued to perform strongly despite the challenges of the global financial crisis. We wish him all the best for his future endeavours,” said Chairman of the CLFM Board, Professor John Niland.

Professor Niland has announced that the CEO of CLV Australia, Mr Martin Earp is filling the role of acting CEO of CLFM and CLV.

The Board is looking forward to the continued success of the business under the stewardship of Mr Earp.
